

EDITOR'S NOTE:

The cover story for our last issue inspired significant coverage of the U-M ECLS lab, including a cover story and video by the Detroit Free Press, as well as stories in USA Today, the Associated Press and dozens of other newspapers across the country. The lab's important work, including the focus of the story on lung transplantation, could save untold lives in near future.

Letters to the editor may be sent to pcliff@umich.edu or to 1000 Oakbrook Dr., Suite 100, Ann Arbor, MI 48104, and may be edited for clarity or length.

Readers will find a new survey attached to the center of this issue. Taking the survey — you might win an M-Den gift card if you mail in a completed survey — will help us form the future of Medicine at Michigan in print and online. Please take a moment to share your thoughts with us about the magazine.

To opt-out of a print subscription to Medicine at Michigan and instead receive email notification when a new issue appears online, send an email with your name and address to medicineatmichigan@umich.edu with "opt-out of print" in the subject line.

Founded in 1850, the U-M Medical School has always been one to lead the way.

Today, we are reinventing medical education to ensure that tomorrow's medical needs are met by no less than the leaders and best.
